The letter containing the proposal to the alleged Mr. Hames at Portland, Ind., is as

HILL CITY, S. D., Sept. 22. Dear Sir-I see by an article in the Fort Wayne Journal that you offer $100 per pound for American tin I accept the offer, and agree to ship you inside of thirty days, or sooner, if necessary, fifty pounds of tin taken out of the ground with in three miles of Hill City, provided, you will deposit with the First National Bank of Chicago $5,000, subject to my order when the tin is del vered to you. I will pay the expenses of any tin expert you may send, to the amount of $250. This expert can see the tin ore mined and go through the process until it becomes tin. As soon as the $5,000 is deposited and I have a certificate of the conditions being complied with, I will forward to you $250. I will also make you this proposition: That inside of four months from now I will furnish you fire deals and the conditions to the conditions that it is the conditions that it is the conditions that it is the conditions that the conditions the nish you five hundred pounds of tin daily until you receive one million pounds of Black Hills American tin. I will give bonds to make my word good. This you will find is no bluff, for I am ready and very willing to produce the tin. With regard to my standing I refer you to the First National Bank of Rapid City, S. D., or Harney Peak Bank, at this place. Awaiting an early reply, I am sincerely yours, Disgraceful Democratic Conduct.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CORYDON, Ind., Sept. 26.-On Saturday night last the Republicans of Harrison county held a large and enthusiastic meeting at Palmyra, in the northeast part of the county. The large and spacious school building would not hold all the people present. A hoodlum Democratic element, deeply chagrined over the fact that the Republicans are having so much better meetings than they, even in this Demo-eratic county, indulged in the most reprehensible conduct. The speakers were frequently interrupted by yelling, loud talking, crowing and other boisterous conduct on the outside of the building. When one of the speakers was addressing the crowd and was just beginning to read from the Louisville Conrier-Journal an extract of an editorial, in which Watterson denounced old soldiers as "treasury-looters." "campfollowers," "coffee-coolers" and "red-nosed patriots." the building just in the rear of where the speaker stood, was bombarded by a hail of stones or some hard substances, for some time, arresting the progress of the meeting.

· Turned Into a Joint Discussion. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

ROACHDALE, Ind., Sept. 26.-It so happened that rival Democratic and Republican meetings were advertised for this place to-day, the former to be addressed by George W. Cooper, candidate for Congress, and the latter by John W. Coons and State Senator Boyd. By agreement of the local committeemen the two meetings were turned into a noint discussion between the speakers named. Mr. Coons was awarded the opening speech. Mr. Cooper spoke next and Mr. Boyd closed the debate. Republicans were more than pleased with the effect. Mr. Coons gave a lesson in political arithmetic in the shape of the Democratic tax law, showing the enormous increase in taxation under it. His black-board was a revelation to the farmers, especially those of the Democratic faith. Mr. Cooper could not deny the exposure, and simply cried, "Billion-dollar Congress" in reply. His followers virtually acknowledged their leader to have been bested by refusing to listen to Mr. Boyd's rejoinder. It was a big day for the Repubicans of northern Putnam.

Henry U. Johnson at Farmland. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

FARMLAND, Ind., Sept. 26 .- Hon. Henry U. Johnson, Representative in Congress from this district, opened the campaign in this county, at Bly & Thornburg's Operabonse, to-night. His speech was a strong one in favor of a protective tariff, eliciting frequent applause. It was the third time for Mr. Johnson to address the people of this vicinity, and the large crowd present was evidence that the western part of Randolph county will this year give a larger Republican majority than ever. Business houses and many residences were bandsomely decorated with American flags. In the evening anvils were fired and the people assembled on the streets, manifesting the old-time Republican enthusiasm. Mr. Johnson was followed by a few brief but pointed remarks from Hon. A. O. Marsh, chairman of the county central committee, urging the Republicans to go to work in earnest for the success of the Republicans Down on the River. Special to the Ladianapolis Journal.

LAWRENCEBURG, Ind., Sept. 26,-Judge J D. Ferrall, of Lagrange, candidate for Attorney-general, was advertised to speak here Saturday night, but owing to threatened pneumonia he was compelled to relinquish his engagements at Greensburg, and the Hon. George P. Haywood, candidate for Reporter of the Supreme Court, was substituted. Mr. Haywood addressed sudiences at Lawrenceburg and Aurora, and much interest was shown. The speech made a good impression, and strengthened the party here.

Hon. John W. Coons, candidate for State itor, and Senator Inomas.L. D Aressed an enthusiastic meeting of Republicans at the opera-house in Aurora, Thursday evening, and Hon. H. F. O'Byrne, of Brookville, addressed a crowded house at Farmers' Retreat, in Casar Creek township, on the same evening.

Charged a Democratic Stronghold.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. PERU, Ind., Sept. 26.-The Republican rally at Waupecong, this county, Saturday evening, was one of the largest county gatherings ever held outside of this city. A large procession, with a magnificent torch-light parade, and speeches by the Hon. John L. Farrar and Hon. R. J. Loveland, were the features. Delegations from this city, Kokomo, Marion and other points swelled the crowd to large proportions. Mr. Farrar made one of his characteristic speeches, followed by Loveland on State issues. It was a case of bearding the lion in his den, from the fact that the town can only boast of one Republican, and the entire township but twenty-one. Some trouble was apprehended, as threats had been reported, but there was no occasion for alarm, and the meeting was one of the most orderly yet reported.

Five Grant County Meetings. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. Marion, Ind., Sept. 26. - Bive Republican meetings were held in Grant county Saturday, Dr. W. S. Frances, of this city, spoke in Democratic Monroe township, Hon. S. T. Yancey had an enthusiastic crowd in Republican Jefferson and Hon. O. A. Baker. candidate for State Senator, spoke in Liberty. At Jonesboro, four miles south of here, Elmer E. Stevenson held a successful meeting, and at the opera-house here, Saturday night, Hon, John F. Scanlan, of Chicago, was greeted by a large audience. So far everything that has developed in this campaign here has been encouraging. The members of the senior and junior clubs were invited to join in a procession, and though no special effort was made there actually were more voters in line than in the parade of the local Democracy on Stevenson's day. Getting Ready for Foraker.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CONNERSVILLE, Ind., Sept., 26 .- A telegram received from Governor J. B. Foraker to-day announces that he will speak here on the afternoon of Oct. 12 Arrangements are being made to make this one of the largest meetings of Eastern Indiana. The various Republican clubs in this section will be invited, and many prominent Reagreed to assist in making it a rousing meetlag, including Hon. Henry U. Johnson, sandidate for Congress and perhaps Gov.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Sept. 26,-Senator Hubble, of Elkhart, and Hon. Charles Foster spoke to a good audience at the courthouse Saturday night. The speakers were escorted from the hotel by the Morton Club, seventy-five strong, led by the Crawfordsville Band. The meeting was presided over by the Hon. Peter S. Kennedy. The glee club songs were enthusiastically received. Eddie Brandkamp presided at the Twincham's Series of Meetings.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ROCKPORT, Ind., Sept. 26,-Hon Arthur P. Twineham, Republican candidate for Congress of this district, closed a series of speeches in this county with a rousing meeting Saturday evening at Grandview. He was accompanied by County Chairman L. G. Smith. All the meetings were a success, there being good crowds and the best of attention given to Mr. Twineham's forcible speeches.

Governor Chase at Pennville.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. PORTLAND, Ind., Sept. 26.-Governor Chase addressed the citizens of this county to-day at Pennville. The meeting was a grand success, the enthusiasm reminding one of the .1.88 campaign. All the townships were represented by large delegations and the crowd was estimated at 5,000. Most of his speech was devoted to the tax law and the tariff and his work to-day will

What Soldiers Think of Harrison.

Specal to the Indianapolis Journal. MONTICELLO, Ill., Sept. 26.-In order to see how the old soldiers felt on the presidential question, there was a vote taken on train No. 1. on the Pennsylvania line, returning from Washington to Chicago. The soldiers on this train were largely from Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and the Northwest. The vote resulted as follows: Weaver, 19; Cleveland, 35; Harrison, 417.

Coons and Boyd at Greencastle.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. GREENCASTLE, Ind., Sept. 26.-John W. Coons and Senator Boyd spoke here tonight to a large and attentive andience. Both speeches were heartily applauded. Mr. Coops's array of figures were especially instructive to the tax-payers of Putnam county and many Democrats are expected to vote a rebuke to their party for the passage of the unjust law. The Republican cause is daily growing brighter here.

Democrats Held Responsible. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

YORKTOWN, Ind., Sept. 26.-Hon. W. A. Thompson, of Muncie, addressed a large Republican meeting at Yorktown Saturday night. Music was furnished by the cornet band, and much enthusiasm was exhibited by all present. The Democratic responsibility for the present large State debt of Indiana was the most impressive

NOTHING BUT FRAUD

Can Prevent the Electoral Vote of New York Being Counted for Harrison and Reid.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.-Ex-Attorneygeneral Michener, of Indiana, who has been in New York almost a month, stated to-day that a remarkable phase of Republican politics in the Empire State this fall was the constant accessions of old-time Democrats and independents to the Harrison and Reid column, without a single loss from the Republican side. "There is only one thing that should give the electoral vote to Cleveland and Stevenson," said Mr. Michener, "and that is wholesale fraud in voting or counting. If we were to have an election to-morrow and a fair count, the Republicans would carry New York by the most decisive majority ever given them. It is the Republican platform and the Republican issues which have already turned the State over to the Republican candidates. I have not found an intelligent Democrat for some time who has not privately admitted, after staying about New York city for a time, or traveling over the State, that we have a majority of the votes in New York already enlisted. The only thing for the Republicans to do is to get out the voters and see that there is an honest count." Not Ineligible to Office, BRATTLEBORD, Vt., Sept. 26 .- Gov. Elliott L. K. Fuller said to-day: "The alleged statement of B. M. Smalley, of the national Democratic committee, that I hold an office in a national bank and am, therefore, ineligible to the governorship, is without foundation, as I do not now, nor have I ever held any office created by an act of Congress. Section 26, of the Constitution of Vermont, reads:

Nor shall any person holding any office of profit or trust, under the authority of Congress, be eligible to any appointment in the Legis-lature, or of holding any executive or judicial office under the State.

CHICAGO, Sept. 26 .- Under date of Sept. 20, a Hebrew resident of this city wrote to ex-President Cleveland a letter of congratulation on the attitude assumed by the Democratic party in its platform toward the persecuted Jews of Russia. To his letter he has received the following reply from Buzzard's Bay: My Dear Sir-Your letter of the 20th inst, is at hand. It is exceedingly gratifying to know that you appreciate so fully the attitude of the Democratic party toward your brethren in the Hebrew faith. I beg to assure you that I am fully in sympathy with the declarations on that subject. I am not sure that the party or myself deserves the least praise for sentiments which are only in accordance with humanity and the kindly feeling which ought to exist in the brotherhood of ing which bukin to mankind. NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 26 .- A letter from the City of Mexicodo the Picayone makes the following disclosures about the recent troubles on the border. An American capitalist is authority for this statement:

"Now that the whole affair has become ancient history, I will tell you that the only revolution there occurred in the columns of the newspapers. Of course Garza existed, and was at the head of a small body of men which he kept moving up and down the river, making a display, but never offering an attack on any military post. He didn't pillage or steal. He paid for all he got. If you will just go back in memory you will remember that some time back the Mexican government floated some $82,0.0,000 in bends. Now a syndicate, among the number two Americans, saw big money in this, so they set about to depreciate the bonds. A revolution was the surest thing to bring about the desired effect, so one was started. Garza was sent for and negotiations were entered into with him. He was just the man for the undertaking. He had an extended acquaintance along the border, spoke English and Spanish finently, was something of an orator, possessed daring and was ever ready to adventure. Well, Garza was supplied with money and set to work. First, he started a small newspaper, in the columns of which he arraigned Diaz, and particularly his tinancial policy. When the fruit was ripe he laid down the pen and buckled on the sword. Apparent alarm was created all through the republic. The syndicate's agents in New York and San Francisco rushed into print. Correspondents were dispatched to the front to write up the revolution, and a glance over their reports shows that they never an account of a single engagement. The troops were massed on both sides of the Rio Grande and a big flourish of trumpets was made. The newspapers fairly teemed with accounts of the revolution. All this time members of the syndicate were snickering in their sleeves. The buit they had thrown out was quickly swallowed. The parties who held the bonds were seized with alarm and mooded the markets with them. Diaz and his partners made several millions by the deal. Of course they paid all the expenses of Garza, which amounted to but little."

THINK IT A FORGERY.

C. B. Harrison Works off a Suspicious Check on a Fort Wayne Clethier.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FORT WAYNE, Ind., Sept. 26.-To-night a stranger stepped into Friend's clothing store and purchased a suit of clothes, giving in exchange a check for $50, signed by the Jenney Electric-light Company. After he left the store Mr. Friend became suspicious and notified the police that he thought the check was a forgery. About 10 o'clock the man was located in a saloon, and when confronted by Mr. Friend, who demanded his money, he counted out $50 and handed it over. Sergeant Bergmann then took possession of the check and placed the man under arrest. He gave his name as C. B. Harrison, of Nashville, Tenn., and claimed to be a United States deputy marshal, claiming that he arrived in this city only yesterday from Toledo, and to-day purchased the check from Jerry Dawd, whose name it bore. Harrison wore a United States marshal's badge. The police think he is one of a gang of slick penmen and are looking for his pals.

Health Officer Jenkins Says the Port of New York Is Now Free from the Pest.

No Cases of the D space at Either Swinburne or Hoffman Islands or at Camp Low-The Scare About Over at Hamburg.

FREE FROM CHOLERA.

No Cases of the Disease in New York Harbor or in Camp at Sandy Hook. NEW YORK, Sept. 26,-"Cholera is over, and at present the port of New York is free from disease," was the cheerful report of Dr. Jenkins this noon, when he returned from the island down the bay, accompanied by Dr. Steinberg for the first time since the Moravia arrived on Aug. 30. There are no cases of cholera in quarantine. It is four weeks since the cholera scare began, and it is now substantially over. There are only a few ships on their way to this port with immigrants and they are coming from the Mediterranean ports. Although the health officer's vigilance will not be relaxed in the slightest degree, be is now, to a certain extent, easier in his mind and free from worry.

The North German Lloyd steamer Saale, from Bremen via Southampton, with 323 cabin passengers, arrived at the upper quarantine at 6 o'clock this evening. There was no sicknes during the voyage. An unfortunate occurrence took place on the Saale yesterday. Mrs. Gesine Arneman, who was accompanied by her daughter, was reported missing, and after a thorough search it concluded was concluded that she had thrown herself overboard, especially as she had made preparations evidently with that intention in view by giving her jewelry to another woman to take care of. She was sixty years of age, and a resident of New York. Mother and daughter were booked in the second cabin. Dr. Byron made the following report to 20. Our last cholers patients are full convalescence. The danger of a few days ago is past, and as friends allow us to congratulate you on your most intelligent discretion and untiring activity both by night and day during this awful emergency.'

Little or no excitement appears to be manifested among the 681 detained passengers at Camp Low from the steamers Rugia and Scandia in camp to-night. In addition to these people who have now completed their twenty-third day of detention in quarantine, to-morrow night there will only be seven persons in camp besides the officials and newspaper correspondents, the detained passengers being Mrs. Dorniz, the cholers patient who is cured but weak, and her four children, and Mrs. Gussner and her new-born baby. Surgeonmajor Sawtelle announced that there is absolutely no trace of cholers in the camp at present, and his statement was corroborated by Dr. Rauch, the cholera expert. A man named Charles Mendoschank was found sick to-night in the double tenement at No. 186 Eleventh avenue. The ambulance surgeon, who was called, said that the man was suffering from symptoms of cholers. The suspect was sent to the Reception Hospital.

City and State Health Boards at War. DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 26.-Local Health Officer Duffield has defied the State board's authority as to the quarantine of cholera suspects, and the trouble has involved United States Inspector Mulheran, Inspector Wright and Dr. F. H. Farnum, who has charge of the marine service. The State board telegraphed to each: "If you will not enforce the State Board rules you are not to act as State inspectors." The trouble is that the State board ordered a twenty-day quarantine of all immigrants from infected cholera ports, while the local board and its allies are passing all such suspects who have Canadian health certificates. The United States inspectors have, pending instructions from Washington, decided to act with the local board, The State inspectors also stick by Dr. Duffield, being promised employment in case they are discharged by the State board. Those who have studied the matter say Dr. Duffield is acting in defiance of the law, and can be fined and imprisoned. Immigrants with Canadian certificates are passed daily in small numbers by Duffield's inspectors. The authorities at Washington decline to interfere at present.

HAMBRURGERS MOVING BACK.

The Decrease in Cases and Deaths Bracing Up the Courage of the Runaways.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. HAMBURG, Sept. 26.—There were 197 fresh cases of cholera in this city to-day, or eix more than yesterday and eighty-nine deaths, or nine fewer than yesterday, and twelve fewer burials than yesterday. The heavy decrease in the number of deaths and fresh cases has had a remarkable effect on the people. About sixty families returned to the city to-day. The wealthier classes have sent their servants here to prepare their houses for occupancy. Between fifty and sixty strangers registered at the hotels to-day. Additional horse cars have been run and the promenaders have been more numerous than on any previous week day for four weeks. The Hamburger Nachrichten has begun a newspaper war on the rest of Germany. The lack of charity shown toward Hamburg, the Nachrichten save, is attributable to the "German passion for self-protecting particularism." The imperial government, moreover, is charged with lack of energy and irresolution. Notes of the Epidemic. The number of new cases of cholera reported in Havre Sunday was four. Five deaths from the disease were also reported. Not a single case of cholera has been reported in Antwerp in two days, and it is considered that the disease has come to an One case of cholera was reported in Brussels yesterday. At Molhem-Bolletzck, a village eight miles north west of Brussels, four cases were reported. The number of deaths from cholers with-

SCANDAL IN HIGH LIFE.

Alderman Porter, of Joliet, Discovers the Infidelity of His Young and Beautiful Wife.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal, JOLIET, Ill., Sept. 26. - Joliet is stirred up to-day with a sensation over the filing of a bill for divorce by Alderman Harry Porter, son of the wealthy brewer Edwin Porter, against his beautiful young wife, whom he caught last night, on his return from Chicago, in a compromising position with Dr. F. W. Werner, his family physician. Both families are wealthy and leading society people. Alderman Porter took witnesses with him to his home, where he descovered his wife's infidelity. He gave her a roll of money and cent her to her mother in Kansas City. He also filed proceedings for $50,000 against Dr. Werner for altenating his wife's affections. Dr. Werner has fied the town and his wife went back to her parents.

M.: "We have had no put up the same money for the race that new cases or suspects since Sept. had been asked by Doble for an exhibition mile. The Lexington dispatch further stated that Doble had replied be would not trot Hanks against any horse in the world. The statements are contrary to the facts in the case, as is shown by the dispatches received and sent by Doble. Bowerman did wire Doble that he would trot Moquette against Hanks if the Lexington association would, for the best race, give what had been asked by Doble for the exhibition mile. Mr. Doble replied as follows:

"Will not trot Hanks against any horse for anything like the amount you name, but will trot Martha Wilkes with you for that amount, winner to take all or two-thirds." Doble had previously been asked by the Lexington association for terms, but they were not agreed upon. The Lexington dispatch seeks to make it appear that Doble is afraid to meet Moquette with Hanks, when the real facts are he will trot Hanks against any horse in the world if the stake be sufficiently large, but he will not match the mare to go a race of heats for the same money that nearly every association in the country would gladly offer for an exhibition mile only.

CENTRAL LABOR UNION. The Sunday Closing of Banber-Shops Discussed-Other Matters.

The threatened failure of the Barbers' Union's effort to close shops on Sunday was the leading business before the Central Labor Union last night. The chairman was authorized and directed to appoint ten members on a special committee to assist in enforcing the law. The subject was warmly discussed and the indifference of the police was roundly censured. The members to be appointed will be notified secretly, so as to avoid publicity. Prosecutions will follow. The grievance committee asked for further time in reference to the brewers' Anrora boy. cott. This was granted. President Loebenberg notified the members that a chartet had been granted the Aurora Union from the National Beer-brewers' Union. The machinists presented a resolution asking the Commercial Club to rescind its contract with the Jenney Company. This was adopted, and the resolution referred to the grievance committee, The machinery molders were denied seats in the Central Labor Union for six months, in order to give time to effect a settlement, if possible, with the iron molders. Henry Gale resigned as a member of the committee on organization, and was succeeded by Will-1am Ostermeyer. C. O. Patterson and E. A. Perkins, being political candidates, resigned as delegates, and Harry Roberts was elected secretary to succeed Mr. Perkins,

D. F. Kennedy was appointed statistician. Keeps Them Busy.
